KATA COMPETITION RULES:

1- The proper execution of kyokushin, technique and complete course will be judged. Different moves in similar kata will not affect scoring.

2- In the Alevín, Infantil and Cadet categories, a first round will be held with mandatory kata, which will be chosen by the competitor, informing the table of all the competitors of the kata to be performed, before the start of the round.

Competitors in the Alevín, Infantil and Cadet categories may choose a kata from the second round or one from the first that has not been performed, exactly the same when moving on to the third round, never repeating the mandatory kata or the one performed in the second round.

In the Junior, Senior, Veteran and Master categories, a first round will be held with mandatory kata, which will be chosen by lottery among all the mandatory kata and shown by the chief referee.

Competitors will choose the kata they want from the second round and likewise for the third round.

In the event of a tie for all categories in the sum of points, the decision will be made by adding the minimum marks (not crossed out), starting with tatami 1, if the tie persists, the maximum marks (not crossed out) will be added.

If there is still a tie, a new kata will be performed with a mandatory decision by flags (Aka or Shiro), THE LAST KATA PERFORMED CANNOT BE REPEATED.

3- In the first round in the categories alevín, infantil, cadet, junior, veterans and master will be scored between 5 and 7, in the second round between 6 and 8, and finally in the third round between 7 and 9.

The score in the SENIOR category in all its rounds will be 7 and 9.

4- The katas to be performed will be those recognized internationally by the different Kyokushin organizations. Exempt from realization SANCHIN y TENSHO.

5- There will be 5 judges for tatami.
